

STENBURY LEADS S. L. IN NUMBER OF BASE HITS

Andy High, Getting in for Dixie Carroll, Gets Double That Sends Manda Over With Necessary Run to Win

BY HENRY C. VANCE.

IRMINGHAM, Ala, Aug. 2. -Memphis won the ball game in the tenth inning of Friday afternoon's game by a count of 6 to 5. With Manda on second base in the tenth frame, High connected with a safety to deep right center for two bags, and Manda cantered home with the winning run. It was one of the riproaringest games seen here in some time, with the ancient Cyrus pitted against the youthful Morrison on the hill and both being hit freely. Crews retired in the eighth inning to allow a pinch hitter to bat for him and Morrison, another youngster went in. Morry was touched up in lively fashion. The game was a seesaw affair, but more repiete with thrills than an air battle in the clouds. Memphis scored one in her first luning, and the Bartons jumped on Cy with a vim in their first half, seoring four runs on five hits in this frame.

The hungry-locking vet refused to yank himself from the box, however, and plugged steadily at his job until the third, when his hirelings got two more runs and eased to within one point of the Barons.

Tie It Up in Seventh. Memphis won the ball me in the tenth inning of

What happened in the tenth has already been chronicled. The game was featured by a marvelous shoestsing catch by Red Smith in right field in the eighth inning, with two men, on. Hairston, pinch-hitting for Crews, slammed a line drive over first. Smith came in with the crack of the bat, showed out shis gloved hand while on the dead run and caught the ball within a half inch of the ground. He fell but clung to the sphere.

High's hitting was also a big feature, the Chick gardener getting three consecutive doubles in the last three times at bat.

Meets Oklahoma Cyclone at Lyric Theater Aug. 11 and Expects to Win.

Bobby Hays, recently discharged from the army, has started training for his eight-round bout at the Lyric, Aug. II., with Nate Jackson, of Oklahoma City. Jackson has agreed to make 120 pounds for the flurry and Hays will step in somewhere near 118.

The Oklahoma cyclone expects to be in Memphis some days before the built and will work out daily Jackson is no terror with the punch, but the Westerner is one of the most aggressive birds that ever hurled a jab. He has been coming to Memphis for five years and has yet to stage a mediocre performance.

Pelicans Go Into Twelfth Round To

UNDAY WILL BE A DAY OF REST for Cy Barger and his band of Chicks. Following the final affair with the Birmingham Barons at Rickwood park Saturday afternoon, the Tribe will have a chance to rest up after the past strenuous week, in which they have won three and lost three games to show for their efforts. The Chicks are due to open with the New Orleans Pelicans in the Crescent City on Monday, and will leave Birmingham Saturday night, in order to spend Sunday in the Louisiana metropolis.

Total OF 122 Base HITS—the largest number of any Southern league with 122 beauting the largest number of any Southern league with 123 shortstop, during the season. Lou is batting alou to larry Ribert. New Orleans outfielder, who is leading the league with a batting average of 250. Larry has secured 120 hits in 343 times at hat. Christenbury has been at bat 270 times. Atlanta leads in city batting and Mobile in club fielding. Tom Sheehan, of Atlanta, tops the pitchers with eight games won and will leave Birmingham Saturday night, in order to spend Sunday in the Louisiana metropolis.

An effort was made by President Tom Watkins, of the Chicks, to bring the Birmingham Barons to Memphis for a game Sunday, as there remains one postponed contest with the Birminghammers to be played off, but the Baronial officials would not consent to make the trip, and as a result the two teams will remain idle Sunday.

For the closing tilt with the Barons Saturday afternoon the Tribe will likely have Eddie Foster or Roy Fentress adorning the mound, with George Bischoff back of the plate. Manager Molesworth will probably send in Cyril Slapnicka or Al Coffindaffer as his hill choice, with Jawn Peters behind the bat.

Dixle Carroll, Chick center fielder, did not play in Friday's con test, being out of the game on account of a malarial attack which laid him low before the team left on the present road trip. Dixle was stricken in the last game played at Memphis with Birmingham, and since that time he has been tanking up on all sorts of medicine in an effort to rid his system of the poison. Andy High, another Chick gardener, sat in and played Dixle's hand for him Friday and gqt three two-baggers, breaking the game up in the tenth with a two-ply wallop.

Knights vs. Express, first game 2:30 p. m.

Parks vs. Choctaws, second game, 4:15 p. m.

Witi, the race settled insofar as the pennant is decided, the Liberty league race is still on for the Winfrey cup and the Shinault banquet offered to the team winning most games during the last part of the season. The Knights are comfortably leading, however, the Choctaws have an excellent chance for the banquet, cup, pennant and all, together with the inside track for the city championship.

The games Sunday should be the best of the present season in the Liberty league. The players are all playing in their best form and with the strong hurling probabilities for isunday's games there should be a banner crowd at Hodges field.

CY WINS HIM A GAME.

CY WINS HIM A GAME.

Cy Barger took it unto himself Friday to do the pitching chores for the Tribe against the Barona, and the old boy had his troubles from the beglining, the Baronal outrit jumpling on him and scoring four runs in the opening frame. But Cy didn't take himself out. He remained on the firing line, weathered the storm, and watched his lads pile up sufficient runs off Messra. Crews and Morrison to win the game in the 10th.

Cy is not in his usual pitching form, and in his last few starts he has shown little or no pitching class. When he is right, he's the best pitcher in Dixie. There are any number of good hittere in the Southern who admit that they can not handle Cy's pitching when the vit it in shape.

can not handle Cy's pitching when the ve; i, in shape.

If Cy would get a move upon himself and work his wing back into the proper condition, the club would be materially benefited. Cy's trouble, however, is that he has worried so much over the sad showing of his team that he has neglected to keep his own soupbone in condition, which is evident in his every start on the nill.

The Chicks are due to open against the league-leading Pelicans in New Orleans Monday. Beating the Pels anywhere is a mans-sized undertaking and accomplishing the feat in their own balliwick will be nothing short of a miracle if the Chicks can come through with it.

Willie Meehan, the coast g⇒b, says he is ready to meet Jack Dempsey anywhere, any time and with the purse divided any way that the new heavy champ so desires. Here's a good chance for Jack to wipe out the smear on his record that Willie put there when he outpointed the champion some time ago, and at the same time pick up the entire purse.

YOUTH AND PUNCH.

The Atlanta Crackers, who are now making such a grand fight for the Dixie leadership and who will be ready to silp in under the New Orleans Pels at the first indication of a skid on the part of the present pace-setters, possess youth and punch, a combination which is going to be hard to deny when the final returns are in. The Atlantain have not a man who is over the 30-year mark with the exception of Ruby Robert Higgins, who is a few acons over that figure. They are practically all collegians. They are hustling and fighting with all the energy and aggressiveness that youth may command.

They have hitched their wagons to a star and are confident that they are a star and are confident that they are a star and are confident that they are going to be the 1919 champions. At present they are but three games to the rear of the Peis and going strong. The Crackers are showing no signs of cracking under the strain of such a rapid pace. If they can hold on for the next few weeks the coveted ribbon will be theirs. will be theirs.

And if they win, youth and the punch may be correctly accredited with the victory.

Ollie Pecord, who refereed the Willard-Dempsey mixup at Toledo, July 4, has landed a job as an umpire. He'il make a better umpire than he was a referee, for he couldn't do any worse. He was more rattled in the Toledo aftair than any other referee in puglilam's history.

Andy High, who has worn the seat of his uniform shiny by sitting on the bench, got in and bagged three two-base hits Friday in Birmingham. Walvers were asked on High, but he was not claimed, and has been retained by the Chicks for just such an emergency as came up Friday when Dixie Carroll caved in.

The Nashville Vols started out the 1919 baseball season as if they were going to sew up the old flap by July 4. This date found them on the bottom of the list, however, and today they are so far to the rear that only an earthquake can dislodge them. Which proves that you can never tell in baseball. The entry who makes a hard sprint at the beginning of a race seldom finishes in the money. Its the steady plugger who arrives at the final tape ahead of the field.

THE CASE OF MAYS.

Ban Johnson, resident of the American league, has acted properly in the case of Carl Mays, who was suspended by the A. L. head after he had been purchased by the New York Yanks from the Boston Red Sox.

Mays quit the Red Sox cold because they were down in the race. He had been feasting on world's series melon so long that he couldn't get used to an aggregation not in the running. President Johnson states that Mays will be suspended the rest of the season as a lesson to him that he cannot get away with any such tactics in organized baseball.

if the Reds eventually cop, it will be definitely proved that file day of miracles has arrived. We may then have room to hope that the Chicks may grab a gonfalon ere long.

ABOUT WAIVERS.

Dear Sir: Please explain to me what a meant by waivers. LaCenter, Ky. SYD W. P. Lacenter, Ky. SYD W. P.
When a club has a player on its team that it desires to get rid of, it asks waivers. In other words, all other seven teams in the league are notified that the player is on the market at the waiver price, which is $100. If a club wants the player, it can refuse to waive by notifying the president's office that the club refuses to waive on the player in question, which means that the team will buy him at $100. The president's office notifies the club which asked waivers that the player has been claimed, and the deal is recorded, and the player changes clubs. In case two or more clubs claim the same player, a drawing takes place and the club which is successful in drawing is awarded the player.

A club can sell a player to a higher league without asking waivers, but not to a lower league until all clubs have waived their claim on him.

Toney was hit hard in the fourth and fifth innings and driven from the mound.

Dubuc relieved Toney in the sixth and allowed two runs on a single by Rousch, a walk to Bressler and three-base hit to right by Wingo. Oeschger pitched the last two innings without being scored on. Ring did well until the sixth, when he passed the first three men up Eiler then went in and two of the runners scored on a single by Fletcher and a double play. THE ANNUAL GAP.

And here is another item: Shortstop has been the weakest post the club for years. Since Simon Bolivar Nichols went to the Athletics there hasn't been a really sensational man for the job. All have been erratic and wild; weird and fuzzy, or at least misplaced. But not one has packed a good eye with a steady arm and a working cove.

If you run through the array you will find that all sorts and styles of shortstops have drawn their pay from the Memphis pot. Butler was rangy, but no great hitter; Shanley was fast and as wild as a bronco. Mitchell was the same way. Stark had a good arm, but had worries as a manager; Dobard was fat; Aragon wasn't there, and Hobbs, who was full of the candy, was drafted. Christenbury doesn't belong on the job.

If memory doesn't fail, the shortstops for the past seven seasons have been somewhat in this order: 1912, Crandall; 1913, Butler; 1914. Shanley: 1915, Mitchell; 1916, Stark; 1917, Dobard; 1918, Aragon and and Hobbs; 1919, Christenbury.

Break During Week

Southern association race has almost narrowed down to one between New Orleans, present leader and Atlanta, who ousted Little Rock at second place Wednesday and who is now within three games of first, a game gain over the margin of Sunday.

The rise of Atlanta in the last three weeks has already caused alarm in the Pelican and Traveler camps. By playing championship ball, the Crackers came from fourth, ousted Mobile at third July 13, passed Little Rock at second Wednesday and is harrying New Orleans at first.

New Orleans, during the five-day period which ended yesterday, remained in championship place after a record of four victories to a lone defeat. The Pelicans took three of four games from Nashville, and yesterday trimmed Chattanooga. In 12 innings, 4 to 3, the opening of a series.

Atlanta yesterday made the 8 to 0 victory over Little Rock, the Crackers' seventh straight win, five included in the period. The Crackers in championship style opened the week by humbing Little Rock Monday, 4 to 3, after 12 innings. Three games from Memphis and the humiliation of the Travelers yesterday completed the card. The Crackers won 23 games of the last 30 played.

Little Rock did not win a game. The Travelers sipped in the last few weeks and have won only 10 of 24 games, the period this week ending after they had dropped the only three games weather conditions permitted. Two of these were lost to Atlanta and the other to Birmingham.

Mobile remained at fourth by a fraction of a same. Chattanooga shook the Chattanooga was in championship playing form and made up the trio with New Orleans and Atlanta, which won more victories than games lost. The Lookouts, at seventh place Sunday, reached fourth Thursday, to lose it yesterday when the obly defeat of the week was administered by New Orleans. Chattanooga, after going from seventh to fourth in four days, finished at the head of the second division with a record of four wins—a single from Nashville and a trio from Mobile—and a lone defeat.

Merenhis remained at sixth place after fluctuating from fifth to seventh. The Chicks broke even in a half dozen games—three wins over the Barons to three loses to the Crackers.

Birmingham also fluctuated from fifth to seventh and finished at the latter a scant one point in percentage behind Memphis. The Barons garnered a single victory to three defeats which resulted in a descent from the first place in the second division to next to the last.

Nashville, with the heaviest bill of the week, seven games, took one end of a double-header from New Orleans, lost all other games and remained in the cellar position.

gard for a rival punch as has nifty Nate.

Jackson has tackled them all and is ready for the parade to start at any moment. His first time out in Memphis caused fans to sit back in wonder and amazement. Never before had they seen a bantam wade into such a fire as did Nate the first time he faced Pete Herman. After that he took on Moore, Coulon, Fisse and the rest, and never took a backward step.

Hays plans to shower Jackson with such a viofous attack that he will stoy and consider. The local lad stated Saturday that he was feeling fine and was 30 per cent improved over his condition before he did his first right face. Hays also added that he has saluted so many officers in his stay in the army that his right are is more than double its original size.

'I ain't kiddin you," he chirps, 'I'm ready for Jackson as soon as he is and intend punching him to a pulp.
